

What Concerns do you Have?	How do you perceive the role of the 8 Cultural Forces within your classroom?	What excites you after today's PD?	Other Comments/Needs
None None None Nothing Significant None None Making sure our curriculum gets completely covered in the confines of what we are trying to do. 0 None None I Know this was our first building PD for the new school year but staff was quite chatty.  That by giving control of the 3rd goal over to administration it is no long a personal goal.  Stages sit up.  None Nil None	Goes well with thinking routines and many things we already do.  Easily integrated natural essential.  It is important and valued.  I will focus more on being inventorial with the forces.  I perceive that I am mindful of the 8 cultural forces.  I am ready to focus on language, interactions, and opp.  As the forces that define my classroom.  It should be easy to begin thinking about adding the pieces of the pie to my lesson.  As a help.	Jumping into my first routine (V.T.) of the year.  Working with students.  The school going more in depth with the 8 cultural forces.  Pretty much everything.  Working on getting students to use a language of thinking.  Moving forward with a culture of thinking.  Goal #3 is going to be easy.  Time to do what we need to help our students with visible thinking.  Using 8 cultural forces!  Trying new routines focusing on 8 forces.	Thank you for the Pie!!!  We love C.I.A time to share/reflect on routines.  20% of students don't feel safe @RMS... a concern.  Go Tigers!  Pie was yummy!  Thank you for the pie.  Thank you for the pie.  I'm a social worker!  Awesome!  0 Great outline and guide for 1st day of school!  Thanks for all your hard work.

What Concerns do you Have?	How do you perceive the role of the 8 Cultural Forces within your classroom?	What excites you after today's PD?	Other Comments/Needs
How to integrate within our roles. Ensuring adequate time to collaborate with team members for high need students. Always finding time to do everything I'd like to do. No concerns at this time. Moving from doing visual thinking routines to making it an integral part of the class. I'm cool right now. Nothing heart stopping	Excited about focusing on these! I am excited to really focus and analyze the 8 forces in my classroom. Excited for implementing more thinking strategies and creating new opportunities for students. Very useful I will be more conscious of implanting them into my classroom. Yay! Excited! 8 cultural forces are quite consistent with social work values. Important will be implementing routines regularly.	I like the focus on the 8 cultural forces because it focuses on how to make routines more effective. Getting started. Ready! Excited about the new school year. Getting the school year started. Getting started on goal #3. Working with a fun and motivated Reuther staff. Implementing 8 cultural forces, visual thinking. The flexibility and deeper learning participation that VT allows within. Learning more regarding visible thinking.

What Concerns do you Have?	How do you perceive the role of the 8 Cultural Forces within your classroom?	What excites you after today's PD?	Other Comments/Needs
	It is important to the culture of the building. Integral Helpful I need to work on using more of the language pieces. I think all of them should occur in daily instruction to maximize student learning. I am looking forward to learning about cultures of thinking! To go beyond doing a routine for the routines sake. It really just is good teaching, right? Easy fit.	Student's participation the Reuther is a great place to go to school. Planning what I would like to incorporate more from visible thinking into my classroom. (Use more of the language, interactions). Learning more about visible thinking. Our student perception survey – Crusader Nation rocks. Personal goal will be easy to implement and should positively affect learning. The sugar high from the pie!	