we will rotate tables to allow more voices to be heard.

Chalk Talk

This can work with every student

Non threatening

Every student has a voice

Student driven

If not successful the first time, try again and again.

Cultures of Thinking is a building initiative. It will only be successful if we are all willing to try (like with reading strategies, MiClass, etc)

How do we get there?

A new team will be trained this year.

Many resources in the school to help you
(teacher lab, videos, etc.)
